Pressman Advertising in CIO Review's list of 20 most promising Google Technology Solution Providers

Mumbai, 25th October, 2017:

Pressman Advertising Ltd. has been named among the 20 most promising Google Technology Solution Providers by CIO Review India in its recently announced 2017 listings.

CIO Review India analysed scores of Google Solution Providers and selected the companies that are at the forefront addressing important industry challenges. The final 20 Google Technology Solution Providers were selected after a close scrutiny by a distinct panel of judges including CEOs, CIOs, CXOs, analysts and the CIO Review editorial board.

CIO Review presented this list adding, "We believe that these companies possess an in-depth understanding of Google's technologies, extensive business process knowledge and the required technical skill sets to add value to every enterprise."

The industry's recognition of skills and capabilities of Pressman Advertising's Digital division should be useful to the company in driving more business for the division.
